LAUNCH OF THE OFFICE OF VIOLENCE PREVENTION

MLK Center for Public Health
11833 S. Wilmington Ave.
Los Angeles, CA 90059

On February 19, 2019, the Board unanimously approved a motion to establish the County Office of Violence Prevention (OVP). The OVP will launch the County's multidisciplinary effort to reduce violence and address trauma through local place-based strategies and system changes.

Join us to learn more about the development of this new office and collective efforts to advance a comprehensive, public health approach to violence prevention and healing across Los Angeles County.

Due to construction, please park at:

- (1) The Center for Public Health on 118th St
- (2) G1 Structure on the MLK Campus across the street (level 4 and 5) on the southside of 120th Street (adjacent to the Augustus Hawkins Building)
